

Delaware Valley Legal Expo Returns as "Live+Virtual" Event on November 13, 2020

We're excited to share that the Delaware Valley Legal Expo will be returning as a special "Live+Virtual" event on November 13, 2020! We've partnered with one of the nation's leading exhibition technology providers to deliver a truly immersive virtual event experience. You'll still have the opportunity to attend CLEs, learn about the latest legal products and services through one-click live chat, and enter for the chance to win dozens of amazing door prizes - all from the comfort and safety of your home or office. As always, the Delaware Valley Legal Expo is free* to attend and is a co-production of the Independence Chapter of the Association of Legal Administrators and Montgomery Bar Association.
