The Tax Cuts and Job Act

Program presented by: Jonathan Samel chairs the Business Law and Estates & Trusts Department of Hamburg, Rubin, Mullin, Maxwell & Lupin

The new federal tax law, known as The Tax Cuts and Job Act, is the first significant reform of the U.S. tax code since 1986. The Act was signed into law on December 22, 2017, and most of the changes under the Act went into effect only 10 days later on January 1, 2018. Some of the highlights of the Act will be discussed, particularly those affecting business and estate planning.
